

Directions to meeting venues

The Royal Agricultural College is situated close to the junction of the A419 (Cirencester to Stroud Road) and the A433 (Cirencester to Bath Road) on the southwest edge of Cirencester. The entrance to the main car park is off the A419. Meetings are usually held in the Mechanisation Block or Parkinson Lecture Theatres.

The Cirencester Parish Centre in the centre of Cirencester, located in a small yard off Gosditch Street, about 150m from the traffic lights at the Parish Church.

The Ashcroft Centre is in the centre of Cirencester on the corner of Ashcroft Road and Ashcroft Gardens and close to the Brewery Car Park.

All lectures are open to the general public
Annual membership subscription for 2010-11, £15
Students free

The Committee

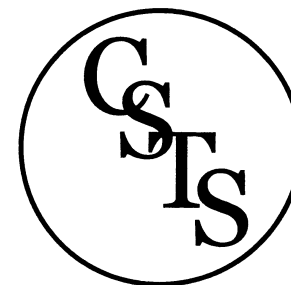

Chair	Mr Richard Gunner
Vice-Chairs	Dr Michael McEllin Prof Peter Stoward
Bulletin Editor	Dr Tony Moody
Committee Secretary & Archivist	Mrs Kathleen Wells
Membership Secretary	Mrs Joan Cooper
Programme Secretaries	Mrs Jo Newbould Vacant
Publicity	Miss Sian Defferary
Treasurer	Mr Julian Upton

Contact telephone numbers:

Chair	Richard Gunner	01285 658929
Committee Secretary	Kathleen Wells	01666 501358
Membership Secretary	Joan Cooper	01452 814212
Transport Co-ordinator	Sue Gillett	01285 656713
Visits Organiser	Herbert Mould	01285 860233

Cirencester Science and Technology Society

A tax-exempt charity

Lecture programme

September 2010 – June 2011

www.cirensience.co.uk

8 September 2010, Ashcroft Centre, 7.30 pm

Stealing Ideas from Nature

Professor Julian Vincent

Director, BIOTRIZ Limited

13 October 2010

Boutflour Hall, Royal Agricultural College, 7.30 pm

8th ANNUAL PUBLIC LECTURE

Fruits of Curiosity : Science, Innovation & Future Sources of Wealth

Dr James Wilsden

Director, Science Policy Centre, The Royal Society

10 November 2010, Royal Agricultural College, 7.30 pm

Stem Cells and the Promise of Regeneration

Professor Paul Fairchild

Co-Director of the Oxford Stem Cell Institute, University of Oxford

8 December 2010, Cirencester Parish Centre, 7.30 pm

The Science and Side-effects of Sword Swallowing

Dr Brian Witcome

Formerly Consultant in Radiology, Gloucestershire Royal Hospital

Members evening, followed by the Annual Consultative Meeting
Seasonal refreshments will be served

12 January 2011, Royal Agricultural College, 7.30 pm

Bioengineering Solutions to Climate Change: What are they, do they work & are they ethical?

Professor Paul Valdes

Head of School of Geographical Sciences, University of Bristol

9 February 2011, Royal Agricultural College, 7.30 pm

The History of Flooding on the River Severn

Professor Lindsey McEwen

Professor of Physical Geography, University of Gloucestershire

16 March 2011, Ashcroft Centre, 7.30 pm

Geo-archaeology of the Severn Valley

Professor Martin Bell

Professor of Archaeology, University of Reading

Joint lecture with the Cirencester Archaeological & Historical Society
Refreshments available

13 April 2011, Royal Agricultural College, 7.30 pm

Bumps, Blips and Bulges: A Theory of Why Localised Phenomena Appear

Professor Alan Champneys

Department of Engineering Mathematics, University of Bristol

11 May 2011, Royal Agricultural College, 7.30 pm

From Engineering Dreams to Clinical Practice

Professor Gianni Angelini

BHF Professor of Cardiac Surgery, University of Bristol

8 June 2011, Royal Agricultural College, 7.30 pm

The Quantification of Risk

Dr Frank Duckworth

Editor, Royal Statistical Society's monthly news magazine